Feedback and Suggestions to Improve Maker Faire 2013

#	Content	Date
104	Can't wait for the next Faire. Please come again soon -- but more advertising, I just stumbled on the info the night before the event! I made some people mad by moving my schedule around to bring my son. (It was worth it, though! :)	5:55pm · 2012-10-30

99	I really really enjoyed myself and getting to share what I love with other people! I even have some ideas for what I'd like to do for next year! The only thing I might suggest is that next time, I'd like to see local musicians playing during the day on a small stage or something like that. :)	10:35pm · 2012-10-25
98	The ticketing was confusing- I got my tickets online and then the staff at the door didn't seem to know where to send me. We just ended up walking in without handing the tickets over. Your attendance was probably much higher inside than you have stated.	2:36pm · 2012-10-25
97	No DJ in the space. Noise was a problem. Have lightning talks during the event? Have a small theater space and short classes on very basic Arduino, electronics, programming, whatever the participants would like to do, including explain their products.	10:02pm · 2012-10-24
95	The event had many technical booths very interesting but very involved. I like the art component and the GREEN ideas. Had a nice time	1:24am · 2012-10-24
